

CENTRE FOR ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION (CADR)

ABOUT THE CENTRE:

ADR is one of most important aspects of Dispute Resolution and it has tried to back the judicial system in more ways than one. The Centre for ADR has a vision to promote the use of ADR methods among the legal and non-legal professionals, students and general public at large. The Centre strive to contribute to the vision and mission of the Maharashtra National Law University, Aurangabad of developing human beings who are technically sound, socially relevant and emotionally strong by imbibing the skills of ADR methods like active listening, understanding other's point of view, discussions, empathy, rational thinking and community interest.

The Centre is working towards various facets of ADR as listed below:

- Collaborating with District and High Court at Aurangabad furthering the causes of ADR.

- Entering into MOUs with District Legal Services Authority and National Legal Services Authority to promote ADR as well as teaching people/litigants in regards to various ADR method.
- Collaborating with ADR professionals, lawyers, institutions, NGOs, Government on matters relating to dispute resolution.
- Working hand in hand with the Legal Aid Cell of the University helping those litigants who need guidance and advice in regards to any of the litigations pending before courts of law in Aurangabad.
- Journal on Dispute Resolution (JDR)- Annual Journal of the centre.
- The centre conducts research seminars, lectures, training, workshops, and conferences on the emerging and contemporary issues nationally and internationally.
- Flagship Event of the Centre- MNLU-A National Client Counseling Competition

CONSTITUTION OF THE CENTRE:

- Faculty Adviser – Prof. Dr. Y.F. Jayakumar, Professor of Law
- Chairperson – Ms. Sakshi Gupta, Assistant Professor of Law
- Deputy Chairperson – Mr. Prafulla Lele, Assistant Professor of Law
